CHEERING.

And now they are satisfied. News from Battleford and the west has reached the central committee, Mr. Montgomery and his travelling companion have returned, and with as much painful experience as any one could desire. The western vote was not so pliable as expected. The great majority of the people were found satisfied with the faithful services performed by their late representative, and only a few disgruntled individuals would rally to the cause of the pilgrims. It is claimed, however, that enough were secured to save the deposit! How cheering. Saskatoon did not respond with that spontaneous burst of enthusiasm once expected. Battleford refused to muster a meeting for them, while Duck Lake was left serenely alone. Mr. Montgomery finds himself in a most humiliating position, for which he has only himself to blame. Four years ago he fought hard for Mr. Macdowall's election; to-day he bitterly opposes him. The electors fully understand his action, and realize that the only difference between then and now is, that four years ago he fed at the Government expense, and now they refuse to employ him. Interested people worked upon his vanity, the consequence is that he must now pay a large electioneering account, and Mr. Macdowall will continue to represent the district in the councils of our country.

HONEST LIBERALS.

The true Liberals of Saskatchewan occupy a proud position. Always faithful to the honest leaders of that great political party, they now refuse to desert the principles of a lifetime. They recognize the fact that the best men of their party refuse to fight side by side with the annexation agitators of to-day, and they look in vain for such men as Blake, McKenzie, Mills, Laird, Gordon Brown and others among those who are now working under the leadership of Wiman, McKinley,

Cartwright and Laurier. The old leaders were ever faithful to their trust, and always fought with an honest desire to develop Canada for Canadians, and now refuse to act under American dictatorship.
Remaining true to Canada and their old leaders, many a Saskatchewan Liberal will to-morrow record his vote for Mr. Macdowall and Canadian autonomy.

THE TOUR IS COMPLETED.

Mr. Montgomery's meeting at Battleford on Saturday evening last must have been discouraging to his varied hopes. A man of buoyant spirits, full of hope and a belief in men's honesty, he was induced by stuffed telegrams to enter the contest. The sudden collapse of expected support from Battleford, Saskatoon, Duck Lake, etc., must be to such a man, painful. Battleford was the last straw, they have with no uncertain sound pronounced against him, and Mr. Montgomery will now settle down to the position for which nature has fitted him.
Never mind, Monty, you are still a member of the Town Council, and Mr. Macdowall will continue to urge your claims on the Department at Ottawa.

CONSISTENCY.

Mr. Laurier may not find a place in the new cabinet should Sir John's Government be defeated—Dr. Jardine at St. Catharines.

Mr. Laurier will certainly be the prime minister of the new government should Sir John be defeated—Dr. Jardine at the Battleford settlement. Consistency thou art a jewel, but a thing unknown to the erratic editor of the Saskatchewan.

The stump speaker known among the Indians as the man with the badger face, is having a hard time of it just now.

The prospects are that to night's meeting will be the largest ever held in the Town. Mr. Macdowall will on this occasion, drive the last nail into the coffin of the few remaining annexationists who domicile on the Saskatchewan.

Numerous names are each day being enrolled on Mr. Macdowall's list at his central committee rooms.
Immediately after the erratic Doctor's powerful effort at the South Branch, seventeen good men and true abandoned Mr. Montgomery's camp and will now assist in swelling Mr. Macdowall's majority. We only ask you to address one more meeting Doctor, be kind, do not disap-point us.

For the information of our River Street friend, we desire to call attention to the good plain English articles which have been for the past few weeks published in the Winnipeg Commercial. The editor is nearly always in line with the Liberal Party, but as a commercial educator of the people, he refuses to accept the commercial union fad.
The Doctor should republish some of the articles for the information of his few readers.

The last and only plank of the late Liberal platform is shattered to atoms by Farrar's outspoken annexation letter to Erastus Wiman, exposed at Windsor by Sir Charles Tupper. The exposure and ignominious collapse of the Cartwright Farrar plot will bring a blush of shame to the cheeks of many Liberals yet undebauched and loyal, with whom Conservatives will sympathize at the disgrace of such a foul conspiracy.

ADDRESS

To the Electors of the District of Saskatchewan:

GENTLEMEN,—After having faithfully served your interests for the past four years in the Federal Parliament, and having been chosen by the Conservatives as their representative in the contest for this constituency, I appeal to you for your votes on the 5th of March, and pledge myself, if elected, to forward the interests of this district with the same energy as I have employed in the past.

As the leader of the Liberal Party has publicly stated in the House of Commons the position of that party with regard to Halfbreed Scrip, namely, that only those halfbreeds who were living in Canadian territory in 1870 should receive scrip, it is to the Conservative Party alone that the Territorial halfbreeds can look with any hope of obtaining the additional scrip they claim as a right.

As during the last session of Parliament the Minister of Justice stated that whenever evidence can be given showing that the Government is clearly liable for losses sustained through the action of Government officials during the rebellion, such cases would be re-opened. This practically settles the question of Rebellion Losses.

The Government having granted assistance to the Hudson Bay Railway, should lead speedily to the completion of that undertaking as an independent road.

The real issue before the electors is the trade policy of the Government as opposed to unrestricted reciprocity with the United States.
The policy of the Government is to uphold Canadian Nationality and Confederation, of which they are the authors, but the policy of the Opposition would inevitably lead to annexation, and a higher tariff against the world than we have at present.

I pledge myself to the maintenance of our national independence, and on this issue appeal to you with confidence for your votes.

I have the honor to be Your obedient servant,

D. H. MACDOWALL.

Coughs,

Allen's Lung Balm was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested.
It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; holds the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; keeps the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough

ADDRESSE

Aux Electeurs du District de
Saskatchewan:

MESSEURS.—Après avoir travaillé fidelement pour vos interets aupres de la Chambre Federale durant les quatre dernieres annees qui viennent de s'ecouler et ayant ete choisi encore une fois par le parti Conservateur pour contester la candidature du district, je viens aujourd'hui solliciter votre appui, vous priant de voter pour moi le 5 Mars prochain; tandis qu'en retour, si je suis élu, je m'engage a prendre vos interets avec la meme energie que j'ai temoignee par le passe.

Dememe que le chef du parti liberal l'a declare ouvertement devant la Chambre des Communes, l'espoir d'obtenir les scrips reclames par la Metis, autres que ceux qui sont accordes aux Metis qui occupaient le territoire Canadien en 1870, repose entierement avec le Gouvernement Conservateur.

Pendant la dernière session du Parlement, le Ministre de la Justice a dit clairement que toutes pertes qui seront prouvees comme etant occasionnees par l'officier du Gouvernement, seront reprises.

Le Gouvernement ayant donne son assistance au chemin-de-fer de la Baie d' Hudson, l'achèvement de cette entreprise se fera rapidement et ainsi nous aurons, sous peu, un chemin independant.

La question de commerce libre amenee par nos adversaires devant les electeurs aurait pour but de renverser notre politique nationale dont notre Gouvernement est l'auteur. Cette politique de l'opposition amenerait inevitablement l'annexion et le tarif alors deviendrait plus lourd avec les autres parties du monde qu'il ne l'est a present.

Je m'engage a maintenir notre Independance Nationale et apres cette declaration je viens avec confiance solliciter votre support.

J'ai bien l'honneur d'être, Messieurs, Votre humble serviteur,

D. E. MACDOWALL

On Tuesday of last week a branch of the Imperial Bank was opened in town in the late office of Mr. Knowles under the management of Mr. J. E. Young.

In another column will be seen an advertisement calling for tenders to cut timber on Dominion lands on one north side of the river.

Special religious services are being held this week in the Methodist church. They will be continued next week each evening at 8 o'clock, Wednesday and Saturday evenings excepted. The public are cordially invited.

The members of Rupert Council, Royal Templars of Temperance, will hold a concert in the Town Hall on Wednesday evening next. They hope to see a good turn out of their friends on the occasion, as they have spared no trouble to make the concert a success.

T. N. Campbell, returning officer for the Dominion election here, who has been visiting the different places where polls are to be held, returned to town today. He found all arrangements complete and everything in good shape.

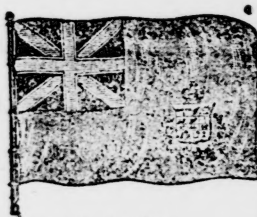

Owing to the excitement consequent on the holding of the elections, it has been decided to postpone the quadrille party until March 12th. The meetings of the club are becoming more popular each evening, and the managers hope to see a still larger turn out on the evening of the 12th inst.

Saturday evening's train brought back Mr. and Mrs. John McFadden, of Colleton, who had been visiting old friends in the east for the past three months. Most of the time was spent in the vicinity of London, their old home. They enjoyed their visit thoroughly, but say they are glad to be at home again and that there is no place like Prince Albert.

On Sunday last Rev. Mr. Rochester preached two excellent sermons to audiences which were much pleased with the commencement of his ministerial duties in this place. In his morning sermon he preached on the love of God which he said he would always endeavor to give the foremost place in his preaching. In the evening he urged his hearers one and all to give themselves to God individually to the service of God.

The February number of Our Homes has reached our table, and we note continued signs of improvement. It is printed this month with new type, which gives it a clearer and much more handsome appearance than formerly. Its selections are made with judgment and good taste, and cannot fail to give pleasure to all classes of readers. The number contains a complete list of the winners in the recent error competition, in which the publishers gave away more than $3000 in cash prizes. A copy of this number will be sent to any address on receipt of ten cents, by addressing Our Homes Publishing Co., Brockville, Ont.

The smoking concert held at the barracks on Monday evening was a grand success, the hall being filled to overflowing. The well rendered programme was made thoroughly enjoyable by the permission to indulge in a social smoke. A number of townspeople helped to make the entertainment a very enjoyable one. The songs and recitations were all very good, although the comic ones seemed to be received better than the rest; nearly all the performers were encored, and there was no hesitation about responding. The band played several good selections during the evening, which were all well received. It is to be hoped that these fortnightly concerts will be continued, as they are very enjoyable and pleasantly fill a gap in our winter life. The performers are to be congratulated on their silence concerning political subjects, thereby showing their good taste.

VOTE FOR D. H. MACDOWALL

And Our Own Canadian Flag.

On Monday afternoon of this week Master Joseph Buchanan had a narrow escape from meeting with a serious accident. While leaning over the balustrade on the school stair he overbalanced and fell a distance of about eight feet. Fortunately there were no serious results.

The Battleford Herald says a careful analysis of the voters' list affords evidence that Battleford polling divisions will give a respectable majority for Mr. Macdowall.

The Town Council held a short session on Monday evening last. In fact all their meetings are got through with in short order, as business is the order of the evening, and no nonsense. Mayor Johnson is to be congratulated on having such an agreeable and business like board to preside over. We have no doubt but that the Council for 1891 will leave a good record behind them.

On Sunday last 30,000,000 Methodists all over the world celebrated the centenary of the death of John Wesley. Appropriate sermons were preached in many churches on the great founder of the Methodist church.

An elderly lady who was born in Toronto says that she has all her life heard talk of annexation. She remembered that more than 40 years ago the old Toronto Patriot came out with a piece of poetry against annexation, of which she could recollect these lines:

Perplex us and vex us,
And do what they will,
They cannot annex us, We're Briton boys, still!

If any elector finds that his name is not on the voter's list of the polling division to which he belongs, he may apply to the enumerator on any day before the polling day, and if the enumerator objects to add his name to the list, he may require the deputy returning officer, on the polling day, while the poll is open, to cause his name to be placed on the list on taking before that officer the following oath:—

You do swear that you are a bona fide male resident and non-holder within this polling division of this electoral district, that you are of the full age of twenty-one years, that you are not an alien or an Indian, and that you have resided in this electoral district for at least twelve months immediately preceding the date of the issue of the writ for this election. So help me God.

Each elector may vote only at one polling station and for one candidate within the same electoral district.

Any elector wishing to record his vote shall, in his turn, while the poll is open, go up to the deputy returning officer, state his full name, occupation or addition and place of residence, take such oaths as the deputy returning officer lawfully puts to him, and declare for which candidate he votes.

Every elector after having voted, shall quietly leave the polling station.

THOMAS CAMPBELL,
Returning Officer.
